TREASURE ISLAND

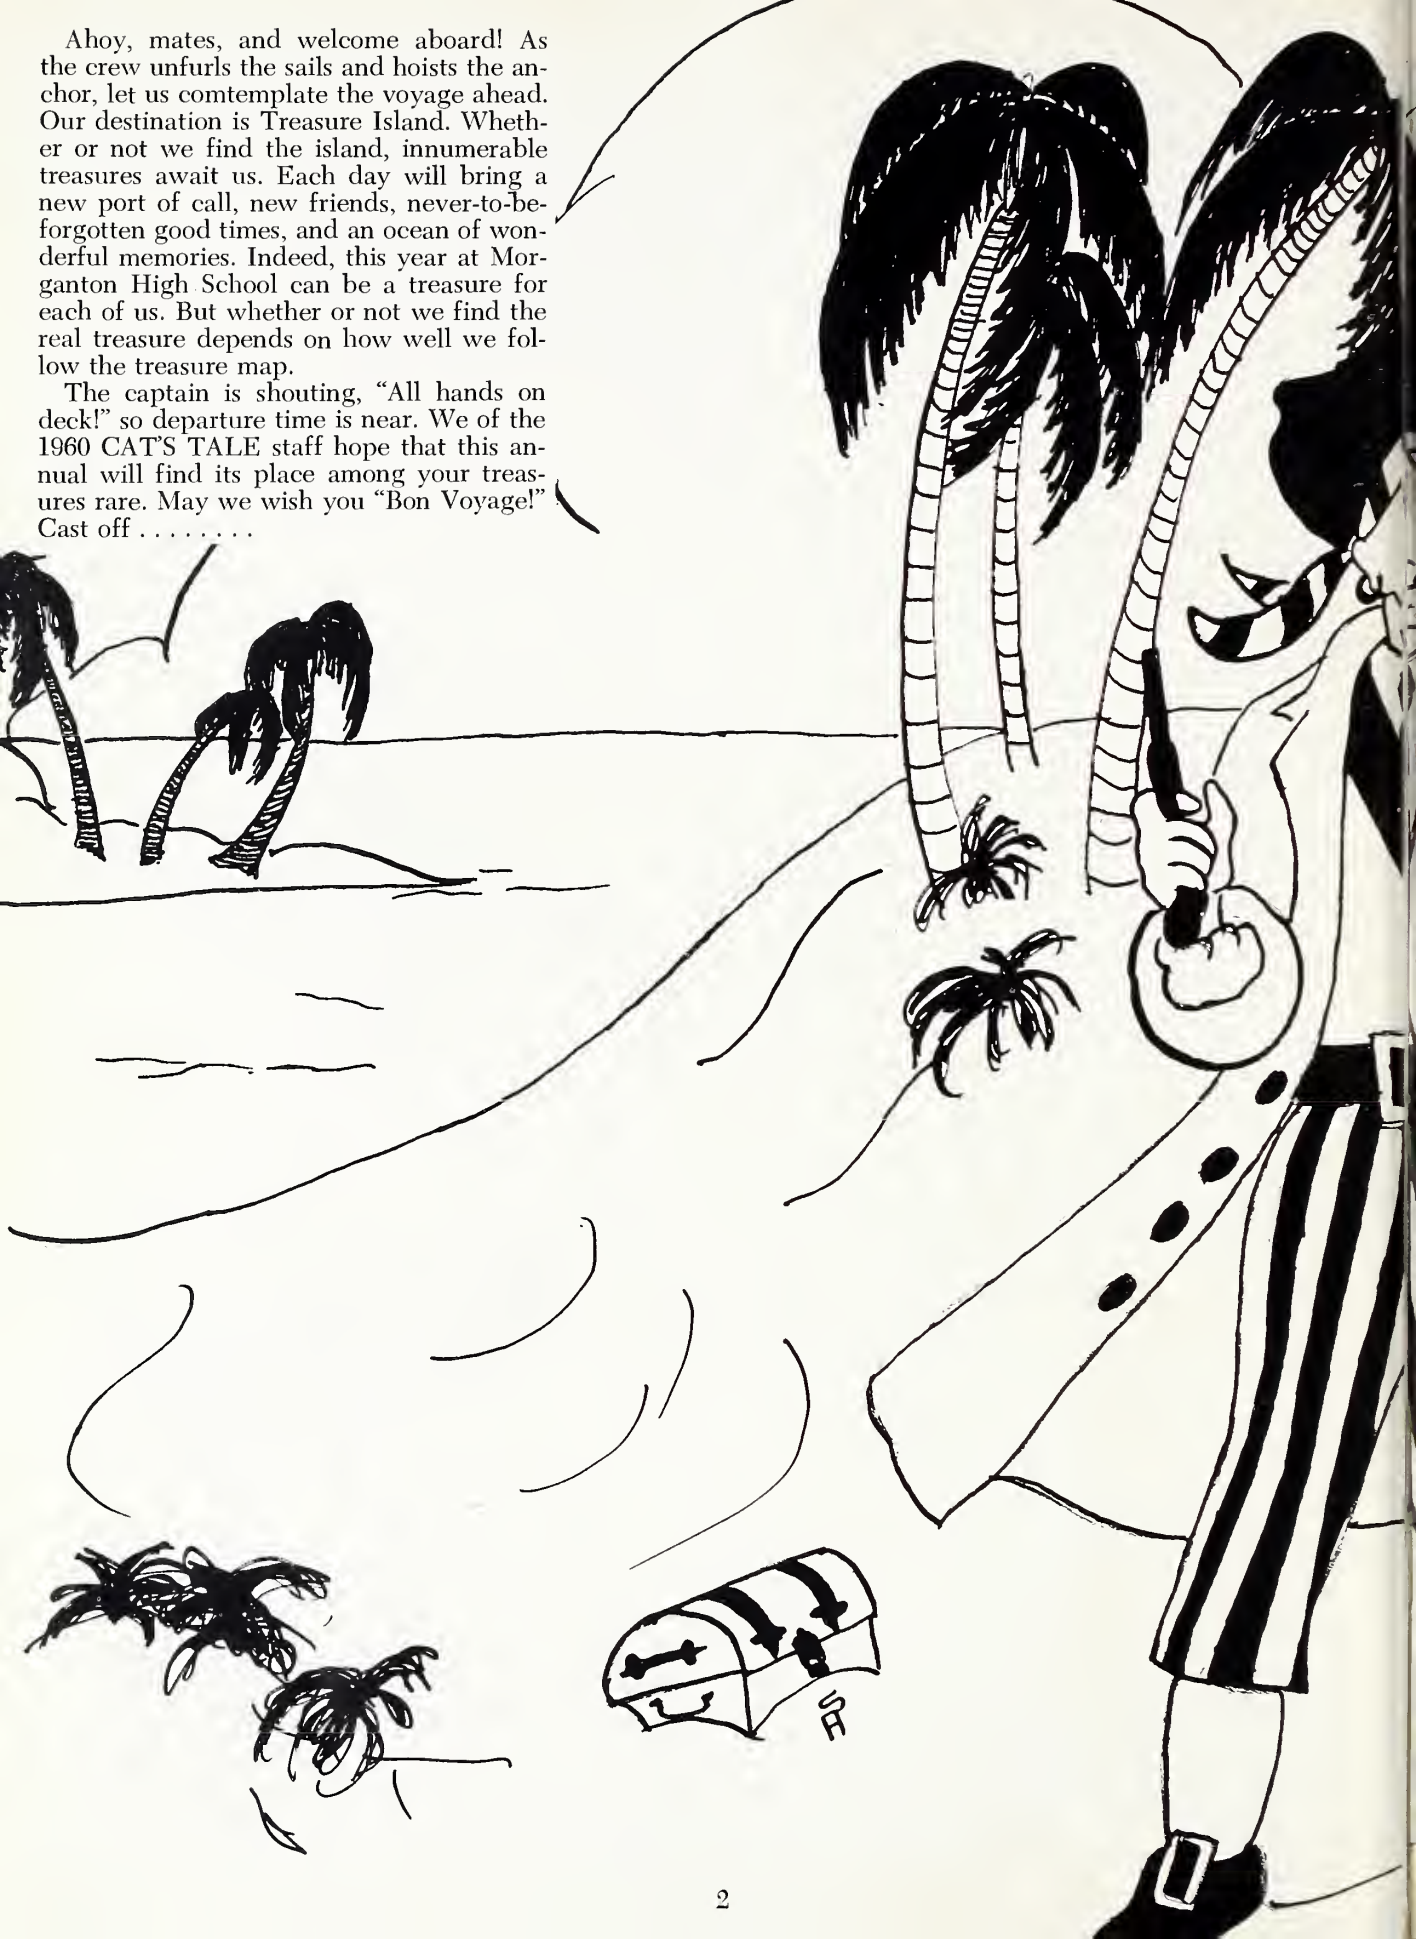

Permission was granted by Walt Disney Productions for the adaptation of Treasure Island as the theme of the 1960 CAT'S TALE.

CAT'S TALE '60
published by the Students of Morganton High
Morganton, North Carolina
Volume XVII

Ahoy, mates, and welcome aboard! As the crew unfurls the sails and hoists the anchor, let us contemplate the voyage ahead. Our destination is Treasure Island. Whether or not we find the island, innumerable treasures await us. Each day will bring a new port of call, new friends, never-to-be-forgotten good times, and an ocean of wonderful memories. Indeed, this year at Morganton High School can be a treasure for each of us. But whether or not we find the real treasure depends on how well we follow the treasure map.

The captain is shouting, "All hands on deck!" so departure time is near. We of the 1960 CAT'S TALE staff hope that this annual will find its place among your treasures rare. May we wish you "Bon Voyage!" Cast off

Dedication

This year we are proud to dedicate our annual to a man who gives unsparingly of his time toward the betterment of Morganton High School. The students' interests are his interests, as he has proved by his work with the Student Activities Board and his interest in and co-operation with all athletic events. His hobby, photography, has been an invaluable asset to the annual staff. This hobby plays another important role at the Junior-Senior Prom. The pictures he takes then help to bring back the magic moments of that wonderful night.

As a teacher, he teaches his students to create; to know the value of being a good worker.

His deeds do not shout out their importance, but stand solidly behind our school to help make it what it is. The man of whom we speak so highly is none other than Mr. Alexander F. Neely. Mr. Neely, this is your annual.

An interview with an annual staff (especially this annual staff) can be quite an ordeal.

This year brought another "first" for Morganton High School—our first foreign exchange student. His name is Kimmo Aarne Tuomas Eskola, known fondly, to all as Kim. He hails from Helsinki, Finland.

In introducing Kim to you, we should like to give you an insight to a few personal items about him which he divulged to us in our interview with him. He is seventeen years old, having been born on July 4, 1942. He has come to find that the Fourth of July is quite an important date here in America, but, unfortunately, not because of his birthday. Kim has three brothers, Seikko, Jarkko, and Kari, and a sister, Tuula. Here in Morganton Kim is residing with the William J. Branstroms of 254 West Park Drive.

One question which is a must in any interview with a visitor here is, What was your first impression of the United States? When we asked Kim this he replied, "The things that impressed me most were the cars, the skyscrapers, and the New Jersey Turnpike." The logical question to follow was, How did Morganton first impress you? Kim replied, "My first few days were a blur—swimming, dancing, horse-back riding, and Gene's (of course). I knew I was going to like living in Morganton."

We also asked Kim some specific questions and found out the following things: (1) He thinks drug stores are a "good idea." (2) His favorite foods are hamburgers and iced tea, both of which he tasted for the first time when he came here. (3) He is of the Lutheran faith. (4) He thinks M. H. S. is a very school-spirited school, and he feels as if he has been here all four years.

Kim quickly began taking part in school activities. He loved the football games and was an escort in the Homecoming game. He found himself with five subjects: English IV, solid geometry, United States History, Typing I, and French I. Clubs began to beckon; and soon Kim was an honorary member of the Key Club, French Club, Honor Society, and Science Club. He is also the Business Manager of the Cauldron.

Although Kim will receive no scholastic credit for this year, we hope that we have helped to make up for that by making his year here a truly unforgettable one. We have come to love his remarkable wit and sense of humor, and we feel that he has been one of us since the beginning of our school years. In summary we feel that he is a real (pardon the expression) treasure!

The Editor

A whole new world awaits Kim just inside these doors.

ALMA MATER

From the mountains to the sea
Rings a sound that's dear to me.
Waking, sleeping, still I hear
"ALMA MATER dear."
No matter where I choose to roam,
You will always be my home.
Singing praises to the sky
For dear old Morganton High.

Administration

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

In the 1960 CAT'S TALE we should like to give some credit where it has long been overdue — to Mrs. Kathleen Stroupe, Secretary to the principal. Not only is she an efficient secretary, but she is also a friend of each and every student here at Morganton High. With never a harsh word to anyone, she takes all our petty gripes and problems in her stride, and is, in every sense of the word, a "healer of all wounds." So we of the annual staff take the liberty of saying, "Thank you, Mrs. Stroupe," for the entire student body!

Seniors

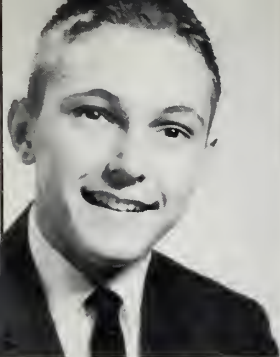

Senior Class Officers

As graduation nears, you find yourself losing the solid footing of your high school years and being pushed into the unknown and often perilous sea of life. College and awaiting jobs will prove to be lifeboats for some of you. For others, a definite goal is still a distant island across an ocean of new experiences. But for all of you, the choice to sink or swim is up to you alone.

Let your knowledge gained here at MHS steer you on your course, and you are sure to reach the ship of success as it sails into life's new horizons.

Senior Class History

This is the school—Morganton High School—and I, the Historian, am the guardian of all the facts of the class of 1960—a class with a hundred stories to tell.

But the main overall story began one bright September morning in the year 1956. In this year we gathered together to begin our high school curriculum as a group of green, floundering freshmen—almost sick with bewilderment. Through the guidance of our teachers and parents we overcame this illness in time to elect as class officers: president, Maude Patton; vice-president, Jesse Cole; secretary, Reta Sain; treasurer, Joe Huffman. This year was called the “embarrassing year” because of our tendency to walk into the wrong classes. But for us they will always be right classes, for they were the backbone for three more wonderful years at Morganton High School. And so we had completed our first big step and were awaiting our next.

With the dawn of our sophomore year we bravely encountered another episode in high school. With our already acquired knowledge of high school routine, we were now worldly wise. And this was the year we could take out our revenge on the innocent rising freshmen. We elected as our class officers for that year: president, Jesse Cole; vice-president, Joe Huffman; secretary, Woodie Beach; treasurer, Vickie Talley. We had the time of our worldly lives cutting up—(frogs and worms)! We also enjoyed our adventure in literature with Silas Marner and Julius Caesar. This was the year many of us got the thrill of entering our first club. This year also saw the formation of our Student Activities Board, whose function is to govern student activities and increase school spirit. The year was quickly coming to an end; then we had a higher goal to look forward to—“upperclassmen.”

September, 1958, began a year of fun, work, and prestige. This was the year of the biggest event in our three-year career at Morganton High School. This was the year of our first Junior-Senior prom. The scene was set as an “Enchanted Isle”; the dance went over with great success. This year was called the greatest year yet; but for many of us, it proved to be the hardest in more ways than one. Everyone looked forward to the end of school when most of the clubs held picnics at Clearwater Beach. Our class officers for that year were: president, Scott Summers; vice-president, Wayland Plaster; secretary, Bunnie Salisbury; treasurer, Jesse Cole.

The marshals for commencement were chosen from our junior class. The students chosen were Elizabeth Fleming and Allen Lennon, chief marshals; Hildreth Stroupe, Melvin Cohen, Reta Sain, Wayland Plaster, Carole Suddreth, Scott Summers, Brenda Lowman, and Bill Wortman.

The year has finally come, the year many of us looked toward and said, “Boy, I can’t wait until I’m a senior.” We possess feelings of superiority to be able to sit in front at chapel or to wait with anticipation for the Junior-Senior prom. The officers we have chosen to lead us in our final year are these: president, Scott Summers; vice-president, Bill Wortman; secretary, Martha Harbison; treasurer, Nancy Annis. Our Senior Specialties are as follows: Linda Tune, Poet; Melvin Cohen, Historian; Sharon Bristol, Prophet; Marty Paisley, Testatrix. Tri-captains of our football team, three great guys who deserve a hand for their efforts in our victorious season, are Bill Wortman, Jimmy Connelly, and Joe Huffman. Now we are on our last leap toward adulthood. Many of us will plunge into our careers at the end of this year, while others will enter the colleges of their choice and extend their educations further.

But this history is not an ending for one hundred stories, but merely a beginning in a bigger, more hopeful world.

This commencing could not have come without the help of many wonderful teachers and friends who guided us through our good moments and our bad moments. To Mr. Schiebout goes our sincerest gratitude for his personal and patient instructions. Our thanks to you, “Put,” to Mrs. Kidd, to Mrs. Curry, and to Mr. Snyder for your invaluable help through our senior year. And we especially give our thanks and admiration to the late Mrs. Carter for all that she contributed during our early high school years.

And our last and most sincere thanks go to our parents, who have given us their priceless understanding, and also to our fellow classmates for making the past four years the happiest of our lives.

Senior Class Poem

Thinking back thru' the years
To when we entered Morganton High,
We remember all the hopes and fears
O' the many wonderful days gone by.

First, we were freshmen, green and scared,
Wondering just what lay ahead;
With the help of all our teachers wise we fared
Well, and found there was nothing to dread.

Then came our sophomore year with its laughter.
At last we began to fit into the maze
Of periods, bells, books, and quizzes,
Having ambitions of reaching the highest of goals.

Upperclassmen at last in our junior year,
Making ready to give to the seniors a prom,
Using a theme that to us was so dear—
A once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for all.

Then came the most wonderful year in our lives,
Seniors in high school; you could tell at a glance
By the gleam and the sparkle that danced in our eyes
As we fondly made ready for our forward advance.

Now as we leave our beloved Alma Mater,
Facing the future with ambition and wonder,
We'll always remember our wonderful days
At Morganton High School with fond admiration.

Linda Tune
Class Poet

Senior Class Will

We, the Seniors of the class of 1960, being of sound mind (we think) do hereby leave our most prized possessions and traits in this our Last Will and Testament.

We know the empty place we will leave in Morganton High School, so we are leaving these final bequests, hoping the underclassmen will always remember us.

To the faculty, we give our sincere thanks for helping us these four long years. We realize all the work they have done in helping (pushing is more like it) us to become Seniors. Once again we give our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to them.

We also leave to Morganton High School the following: marked walls, carved desks, broken windows, and slightly beaten-up lockers, all accomplished in the four years we have been here. Please remember, it was not destruction, but merely our growing pains.

We, Mary Ruth Puett, Diane Tasler, and Wanda Kay Reece, leave our quiet ways to Linda Ross and Leslie Duckworth.

I, Pat Goodnight, leave my ability to play the accordion to Billy Duckworth, so he can form a one-man band.

I, Delenc Johnson, leave my book How to Go Steady in Four Easy Lessons to Judy Brandon and Richard Lane, who seem to catch on easily.

I, Mary Martha Parrish, leave my ability to be calm, cool, and collected and never to worry about anything to Barbara Tolbert, who has a tendency to get a little excited over things.

I, Pat Barry, leave my buckets of paint and brushes, along with the newly painted dressing room, to next year's Girls' Varsity "M" Club members.

I, Reta Sain, leave my ability to keep peace (???) in the Annual Room to Tracy DeBell.

We, Wayne Cannon and Darrell Ledford, are putting clocks in all the school buses so next year's bus drivers will be on time. (We have been anywhere from fifteen to twenty minutes late in getting to school a few times this year.)

I, Martha Harbison, leave all my French Menus from Antoine's and all my history identifications to Mary Lou Byrd because, believe you me, she'll need them next year!

I, Joyce Powell, leave my excellent conduct in history to Frances Hoyle, who also enjoys talking while the roll is being called.

I, Margaret Smith, leave my string of ex-boy friends to Linda Brown.

I, Bennett Harrison, leave my collection of library passes to Jack Grady.

We, Pat Prutt and Ruth Bivens, leave M. H. S. for married life.

I, Benny Rockett, will be content to leave.

We, Larry Gragg and Johnny Mack Strickland, leave "Elsie" to anyone who can find a better hiding place than we did.

We, Louis Putman and Vance Moore, leave our jobs at Long's Esso Station to Bill Evans and Charles Lovelace.

I, Wayne Whisnant, leave a year's supply of free tickets to the Mimosa Theater to Winston Small.

We, Byron Gentry and Buddy Allman, leave the leadership of the Baby Mau Mau tribe to Mrs. Kidd, in the hope that she will carry on our work.

I, Wayne Pearson, leave my collection of United States Presidents to Bobby Greenfield.

I, Ann Franklin, leave my record of "Peter Gunn" and my baton to next year's Dix-ettes, Susan Parker and Patty Thomas.

I, Cookie Wilson, leave my record of "Somebody Stole My Man" to Betsy McKee, because I don't need it anymore.

I, Markey Jones, leave my stately carriage to Kay Hauser.

We, Theodore Roosevelt Lambert and Wade Hampton Stack, Jr., leave our names taken from famous men to Steven Ivester, who is desinted to be President.

I, Elizabeth Fleming, leave my book entitled How I Came in First at the Darlington "500" to Nancy Arney, who also seems to enjoy stock-car racing.

I, Leroy Mull, leave my love of the golf links and my book Leroy Mull's Ten Ways to Shoot in the 70's to Doug Shepherd.

We, Doug Avery and Roy Murray, leave our ability to enjoy poor health to anyone who thinks he needs a vacation from good ol' M. H. S.

I, Hildreth Stroupe, leave my 1980 designs for the "Hiddymobile" to Jane Spainhour.

I, Jo Lynn Shull, leave my love of basketball to Flo Pitts and Ginger Bell, in the hope that they will carry on for the Ladycats.

I, Nancy Annis, leave my ability to get along with everybody to Joyce Davis and Mary Ellen Hunnicutt.

I, Tommy Puett, leave my ability to total a car and come out of it without a scratch to Sammy Cline, who is going to need it at the rate he is going.

We, Jerry Scott and Wayne Arnold, leave our positions as ticket-takers to Charles Spencer and Bobby Powell.

I, Millard Riggs, can't afford to leave anything after the Duke-Carolina game, but I will appreciate any contributions.

We, Clarice Greene, Carolyn W. Baker, and Rebecca Miller, leave our pleasant dispositions to Barbara Shell, Dean Lackey, and Kay Allman, who always have a smile for everyone.

We, Dave Sandahl and Allen Lennon, leave our string of freshmen girls to Bennett Gray and Jimmy Riggins, because they seem to go for them, too.

We, Melvin Cohen and Sherrill Austin, will our film production "Casey Jones and the Runaway Train" or "What Happened to the Red Cadillac at 9:15" to M. H. S.

We, Ralph Ballew and James McLean, leave our ability to get a lot done without saying much to Harold Roper.

We, Bobby Barrier and Henry Watts, leave our ability to take everything slow and easy, and never, never rush to Larry Mull and Doug Wright, because they are always in a rush.

I, Marsha Anderson, leave my ability to let everyone know I'm around to Carolyn Harris and Patsy Yount, and my Fiat to Barbara Scott, so she will have room enough to haul everyone around.

I, Brenda Lowman, leave my collection of derby hats to next year's Homecoming Sponsors.

I, Jimmy Connelly, leave my Blue Cross Protection plan to Butch Anderson, in case he gets hurt in football next year.

I, Sandra Light, leave my book entitled How to Set Off an Atomic Bomb in Your Own Back Yard to Sandra West.

I, Jane Earn, leave my ability to look most like Dracula in the Casey Coffin skit to Mary Alice Lineberger, so she can carry on next year in traditional Anchor Club style.

I, Helen Singleton, leave my year of turmoil in Spanish II to Adelaide Corpening, in the hope that she comes out of it better than I did.

I, Minta Orders, leave my collection of mystery and cowboy books to Phyllis Clark.

I, James Johnson, leave my ability to play a good game of baseball to Bruce Buchanan.

I, Henry Cantrell, leave my ability to be every teacher's pet to Jay Benesh.

I, Scott Summers, leave Morganton High School in the capable (???) hands of Herby Franklin.

I, Wynda Kay Kirby, leave my ability to cut a rug—even when there isn't one to cut—to Martha Kay Smith.

I, Bill Wortman, leave my title of the Best Looking Boy in Morganton High School to Doug Lybrand.

We, Braxton Melton, Wayland Plaster, and Bill Poteat, leave all our skin-diving equipment and Lake James to any junior boy who goes in for "Seahunt" activities.

I, Barbara Puett, am taking fond memories of Valdese with me.

I, Joe Clark, leave my ability to get into trouble while minding my own business to Wayne Whitaker.

I, Joe Huffman, leave my senior class ring to Becky Browning.

We, Jim Weller and John Berry, leave our love of Dixieland Jazz to Barry Britenbach, who is an authority on this subject.

We, Howard Carroll and Arthur Sharpe, leave our book How to Customize Four Wheels to Jerry Houck and Wylie Stansell.

I, Bunnie Salsbury, will my winning personality to Jan Taylor.

I, Sharon Bristol, leave my ability for getting flustered and laughing my way out of it to Diane Patton.

I, Dennis Bradley, leave my one and only way of laughing at everything and everybody to Howard "Maynard" Gray and Bill Petrie.

I, Noryne Mitchell, leave my original Southern drawl and slow walk to lil' ol' Phyllis Volz.

I, Rebecca Clemmer, leave my ability to peg, chase down, and hog-tie any boy to Kelly Hoyle.

I, Carole Jean Suddreth, am leaving nothing, because I am taking it all with me.

I, Kim Eskola, take many fond memories of M. H. S. home, and also the privilege of being the first foreign exchange student at M. H. S.

I, Sandy Houpe, do not leave Bobby McSwain to Roberta Webb.

We, Victor Parks and Charles Goodnight, leave our jobs at the Winn-Dixie Store to Donald Bridges, so he can have three instead of one.

I, Martha Booth, leave my love of older boys to Anne Coffey, who seems to go for the younger ones.

I, Margaret Tolbert, leave my ambition to be a secretary to any junior girl who feels this is the career for her.

I, Sandra Golightly, leave my long black locks to Lois Parton in case she feels she needs a change.

I, Donna Conley, leave my place in Mr. Redmond's homeroom to some deserving freshman.

I, Linda Tune, leave my poetic ability to the junior who gets to write next year's class poem.

I, Faye Riddle, leave my job at the hospital to Judy Setzer.

I, Norma Self, leave my ability in home economics to Naomi Miller.

I, Faye Whisnant, leave all my notes in shorthand to Martha Whisnant.

I, Bill McFadden, leave my place in the lunch line to Randy Rollins.

I, Woodie Beach, leave all my matching outfits to any junior girl who feels she is mismatched.

We, the Senior Class, offer our hand and seal this, approving it to be our "Last Will and Testament."

Miss Reta Sain
Director of Admissions
Mars Hill College
Mars Hill, North Carolina

Morganton, N. C.
May 30, 1971

Dear Reta,

I'm back in Morganton for a few days, and I knew you'd like to hear all about our dear old class of 1960.

I was crossing the street yesterday (you'd never recognize it with the new traffic control system designed by Millard Riggs) and I ran into Martha Harbison. She told me that she owns a new shop called "Sloppy, Inc." (You know how it is nowadays—you can't dress neatly and be accepted.)

Martha was just full of news about our old friends. I hope I can remember everything. You know what an encyclopedia of information she is.

I hadn't seen Spake's in a long time, so I suggested that we go in and get one of those "Slurp-Ades" that I had heard so much about. (Sherrill Austin and Buddy Allman made a fortune from those things!) While we were drinking them, a familiar face appeared on the television screen, and the famous announcer, Scott Summers, said, "And now a look at the weather brought to you by that 'Belle of the Barometer,' Rebecca 'Cloudy' Clemmer!" But before she had begun to speak, a news bulletin came on announcing the fifth marriage of the celebrated actress, Martha Paisley. (Her matron of honor was none other than the famous multi-million dollar heiress, Jane Earp!)

After finishing our "Slurp-Ades," Martha and I left Spake's. Outside, there was a tremendous commotion. Upon inquiry, we discovered that the renowned team of Arthur Sharpe and Elizabeth Fleming had just zoomed by on their way to Indianapolis. In the crowd that had gathered, I noticed the famous school bus manufacturers Wayne Cannon, Louis Putnam, and Darrell Ledford; and the big Esso Company executive, Bill McFadden.

You know, many of our classmates are manufacturers of something or other. Mary Martha Parrish, for example, must be rather eccentric because she makes nothing but pink cardigan sweaters. Her psychiatrist, Howard Carroll, says it all dates back to an incident that occurred while she was in high school. Pat Barry and Brenda Lowman have a partnership which manufactures ladies' derbies for the annual horse show.

Tommy Puett, Joe Clark, Henry Cantrell, and Doug Avery have a thriving business. It is a reducing salon called "From Fat and Forty to Thin and Thirty in Ten Treatments of Transformation," or F. F. F. T. T. T. T. T. T.

Hildreth Stroupe, Diane Tasler, and Sandra Golithly manufacture little sports cars. (They have become world famous for their fabulous "Hiddydiandramobile.")

Since Barbara Puett's hotel, where I am staying, serves only once a day, I had to go down to the Super-Duper Market (one of a chain owned by Victor Parks and Charles Goodnight) and buy some groceries. There I ran into the glamorous model, Cookie Wilson. She began telling me of the successes of the two beautiful actresses of stage and screen, Bunnie Salsbury and Noryne Mitchell. (You'll probably recall that they were also chosen "Miss America" for 1965 and 1966, respectively.) Cookie also told me that the famous WAVE comander, Pat Ollis was home on leave last week. As I was leaving the Super-Duper Market, I met the renowned traveller and lecturer on tropical diseases, Nancy Annis. She said that while she was in Europe she saw the team of Sandy Houpe and Carole Suddreth searching for fossils among the ruins of the Roman Coliseum. Speaking of Sandy, I hear that she has finally been cured of that dreaded two-period virus she had while she was in school. Nancy said she also saw the celebrated dancer, Wynda Kay Kirby, performing at the London Palladium.

When I got back to the hotel, I discovered that I had missed the appearance of the world champion golfers, Leroy Mull and Benny Rockett, and their "foxy" manager, Wayne Arnold. They had come here for an appearance on John Berry's T. V. Variety Show. Other guests who appeared on the show were Patty Wacaster, the famed psychologist, and her assistant, Janice Pritchard. They lectured on the evils of alcoholic beverages. After the show, Patty threw a large party at the swanky bar adjoining the television station. The bar is owned by the well-known philanthropist, Dave Sandahl. It is said that Dave has been giving away so much money lately that he has to borrow from "Diamond Jim" (we knew him as Dennis) Bradley. Patty's party was a big success and I was able to see some more of our friends.

The famous designer, Madame Woodie Beach, was there. She was escorted by her handsome husband, the head football coach at The University of North Carolina, Bill Wortman:

My attention was attracted to the wall by an odd-looking mural. It was a painting of Grendel entering his cave. I am told that it was done by the artist, Marsha Anderson.

The music for the party was provided by Wade Stack and his "Stackettes." Jim Weller, a member of the "Stackettes" is currently giving Gene Krupa drum lessons. Wade's featured vocalist was Markey Jones, who sang, "I Could Have Talked All Night."

While I was listening to the music, the important business executive, Allen Lennon, came over and began talking to me. He said that he had been keeping his secretaries, Margaret Tolbert, Ann Franklin, and Mary Ruth Puett busy answering his many fan letters concerning his recent show business venture. He has been appearing in a revised edition of Romeo and Juliet. Besides playing Romeo, he also plays Juliet. (He is directing and producing the play, too.) Allen told me that the star of the television show "People to People," Bobby Barrier, is going to interview the Finland ambassador to the United States, Kimmo Eskola. Kim has done much to increase the relationship between the two countries. Last week, Bobby interviewed Arthur Godfrey's summer replacement, Melvin Cohen. Melvin is doing such a good job, the network is considering giving him a permanent show.

After the party I returned to my hotel. There in the swimming pool were the outstanding skin divers, Wayland Plaster and Bill Poteat. A bystander told me that they were looking for Delene Johnson's ring which she had dropped in the water while fishing for goldfish. (It was evident that Delene hadn't paid any heed to Patty's lecture.) Incidentally, I hear that Delene is currently appearing on "Pantomime Quiz." Another person on the show is Joyce Powell, but the only trouble with Joyce is that she always tells the other team what she is pantomiming. I talked to Joyce not long ago, and she told me that she had been in the hospital because of her fallen arches. Her nurses were Faye Riddle and Pat Goodnight. The head of the staff at the hospital is Dr. Jimmy Connelly, who is famous for his feats in surgery. Just the other day he cut off Wayne Pearson's hangnail which had been bothering him for a long time. One of the biggest donors to the hospital is Byron Gentry, the professional football player. Byron is particularly famous for his brilliant scoring ability.

Reta, I know you have heard about Joe Huffman. He is conducting tours of Paris now. He would never have made it, if it hadn't been for the "American-turned-Frenchman," Monsieur Braxton Melton. Braxton is the maitre d' at Maxim's Back at the hotel where I am staying, I met Linda Tune and her new husband. They were able to marry after Valdese and Morganton were consolidated. Another person who is happy about the consolidation is Margaret Smith. The Valdese-Morganton consolidation was due to the untiring efforts of the mayor, Licata Puett.

The hotel social director, Donna Conley, known for her charm and poise, told me about some more of our classmates. She said that Martha Booth, who married a general in the Army, is doing very well in her job as a reporter on the local newspaper. Another reporter, Clarice Greene, has written some exciting accounts of Henry Watts' spectacular speeches. Along with Clarice is Sandra Light, who has written many essays on the tsetse fly.

Two famous historians are staying here at the hotel. They are Helen Singleton and Minta Orders. Helen and Minta are in town to give the history of the renowned civics major, Bennet Harrison.

The hotel manager, Teddy Lambert, recommended a movie to me, so I went to see it. The owner of the theater is Wayne Whisnant, and the manager is Roy Murray. The movie I saw was the life story of two famous women explorers, Patricia Williams and Rebecca Miller, who, along with Norma Self and Jo Lynn Shull, were the first women to visit the moon. When the lights in the theater came on, I recognized four scouts for the New York Yankees: Jerry Scott, Ralph Ballew, James McClean, and Vance Moore. Appearing in person on the stage of the movie theater, were the Whisnant Sisters, Carolyn, Ruth, and Faye. They sang their rendition of "The Chipmunk Song." This song has made a come-back and given the Whisnant Sisters a million-seller. Their press agent, Wanda Kay Reece, is responsible for their tremendous hit, because she publicized them so much on James Johnson's Amateur Hour.

Well, Reta, I see by my clock (made by the "Elsie" Clock Manufacturing firm of Gragg and Strickland) that it is time for me to end this letter. I might add that I think it was wise of you to get a job where you can be near your husband. I do hope he graduates soon. Take care of yourself, and maybe some day we can have a reunion.

Love always,
Sharon Bristol

Juniors

Junior Class Officers

The cry of "Land Ho!" echoes down from the crow's nest, and with it comes the excitement of new adventures. In the distance you spot your goal and cast off for Senior shores. Being upperclassmen this year has meant much responsibility and hard work, but remember, too, the satisfaction of a job well done and such extra-curricular activities as the Junior-Senior.

The past years have prepared you to meet the challenges awaiting you as Seniors. You will enjoy new prestige and respect. Use your experience gained thus far and you will become top "first mates" in every respect.

You are now in the second stage of your training on the good ship MHS. Now you are no longer land lubbers, yet you still haven't acquired the knowledge and experience required to become first mates. Hard tasks and dirty work befall you, but remember, too, the thrill of joining clubs, the worrying over all those bugs and leaves, and the fun of the past year.

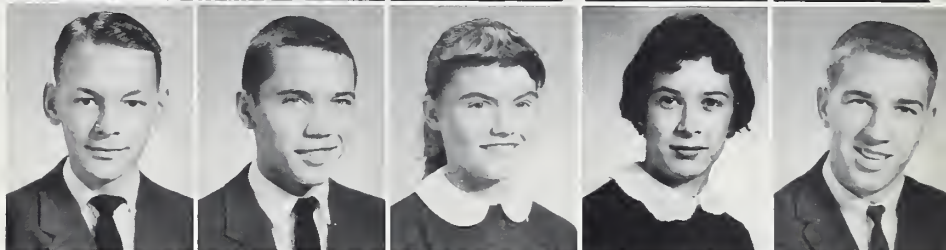

This year has been a necessary part of your education, and now that it is nearly over, you may leave behind your age-old title of "wise fools," and at last look forward to becoming upperclassmen.

Freshman Class Officers

A new crew boarded our good ship MHS last September, and they soon realized that high school was hard work, as well as fun. Remember those aches and pains after phys. ed. classes, and that feeling of being alone while crowds of people rushed by in the halls? Almost at once, the new crew set about learning the ropes of the school, and before long, they were almost old salts.

Now your Freshman year is almost over, and you will find that the coming years pass much too quickly. Let each new experience be a star to steer you on your course.

T-O-U-C-H-D-O-W-N!!

HARD TO BEAT . . .

SUMMARY OF

The Morganton High Wildcats, led by tri-captains Joe Huffman, Jimmy Connelly, and Bill Wortman, enjoyed a truly great football season in 1959. Under the capable leadership of Coach Earl Broome and Coach Bill Greene, the Wildcats rolled to a very impressive 8-2 record.

Morganton began the season against non-conference Forest City. Butch Anderson led the Wildcats to a 37-6 victory while scoring two touchdowns.

When the Red Devils of Newton travelled here to play, the 'Cats really had a romp. Ten touchdowns were scored, with Anderson scoring three, Byron Gentry scoring two, and Doug Golightly scoring two. The amazing score at the end of the game was Morganton 66, Newton 6.

The 'Cats travelled to Valdese for their next victory. Big John Mace played an outstanding game on offense and defense, while Byron Gentry was making big ground gains to give the Wildcats a 26-0 victory.

The Hudson Hornets gave Morganton its first setback of the season with a score of 26-6. Gentry scored the only touchdown for the 'Cats.

After Taylorsville forfeited their game to us, the Wildcats won the Homecoming game against Wilkes Central with a 27-19 score. Trailing 19-7 at the half, the 'Cats made a great comeback to take the game. Bryon Gentry scored three touchdowns and the "Rock Wall," the line, held the Eagles to practically no yardage during the second half.

THE SEASON

The 'Cats journeyed to Lenoir to play their best game of the season. A real team victory, the "Rock Wall" held the fast Lenoir back-field down and recovered many fumbles, while Dennis Bradley and Butch Anderson led the rushing attack. The score at the end of the game was Morganton 33, Lenoir 20.

The "Battle of the Mud Bowl" was the most appropriate name for the Morganton-Marion game. While the rain came down in sheets, Anderson, Bradley, and Herby Franklin scored touchdowns, which led to a 20-7 victory.

With the "big game" coming up, school spirit was at a peak. The 'Cats travelled to Hickory, only to lose to the Red Tornadoes with a 35-6 score. Dave Sandahl scored the lone Morganton tally.

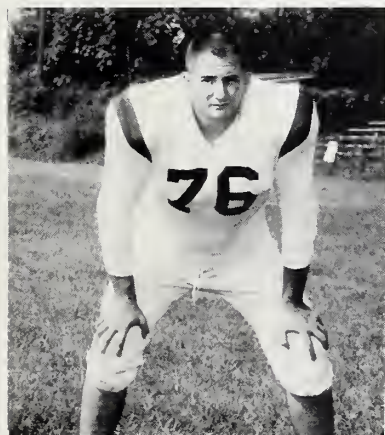

Morganton closed out the season in fine style by defeating the Ironmen of Cherryville, 45-12. Seniors Joe Huffman and Dave Sandahl ended their high school careers by scoring five touchdowns between them. All the other seniors played a great game.

All in all the '59 Football Wildcats had a great season. Defeated in only two games, the 'Cats rolled up huge scores in every other contest. Four of the players, Dennis Bradley, Bill Wortman, Byron Gentry, Bill Poteat, and Joe Huffman were nominated to play in the annual Lions Bowl, although Huffman did not participate. The three boys who played made a fine showing. Let's give the '60 Wildcats the same wonderful support that the '59 Wildcats had.

THEY STAND OUT IN THE SCHOOL

Wayland and Anne work hard on the decoration of the Christmas tree in the front hall.

The Student Activities Board is composed of the presidents of the school clubs and the four classes, and editors of school publications. The purpose of the Board is to serve as a mediator between students and faculty, which has been emphasized more this year by the Board than ever before.

The opening of school in September launched the Board into its third year of operation. After officers were elected and preliminary details were taken care of, the Board settled down to work, determined to do a good job during the 1959-60 school year. First on the agenda was the assigning of devotions to one of the Board members for a week. This is regular business at the meetings, for devotions are assigned two weeks in advance. This is a service much appreciated by the student body. Other tasks under the heading of "regular business" are the assigning of clubs or individuals as ticket-takers at athletic events, and seeing that a weekly assembly program is sponsored by a club.

A new idea was presented to the Board at one of the first meetings—presenting a weekly radio program. At first this was not too well received, but the more the members pondered on the idea, the more pleasing it became. The outcome of this is our weekly program over radio station WMNC, called "Morganton High Highlights," Melvin Cohen was one of the first Board members to have morning devotions.

In order to raise money to help pay for our Student Handbook and Directory, the Board sponsored a sock hop in the gym following a football game. This project proved to be fun, as well as profitable. We received our directories the day we returned from the Christmas holidays. Melvin Cohen was in charge in the publishing of the handbook, and he, along with many others who typed and arranged names alphabetically, did a splendid job.

Another project of this year's Board was the presentation of an assembly program. This program was in the form of a Board meeting in the presence of the student body. They discussed school problems just as they would at a regular meeting, and this let the students know a little more about how the board operates. This seemed to have a good effect on the school as a whole.

A "fun project" of the Board was taking charge of the decoration of the large Christmas tree in the front hall shortly before we leave for the Christmas holidays.

We are extremely proud of the 1959-60 Student Activities Board, and want to commend them on their fine work for the school during this year. They have been an invaluable asset to the school, and have bettered themselves by working for it.

Annual Staff: Patsy Yount, Carole Jean Suddreth, Mary Alice Lineberger, Phyllis Volz, Elizabeth Fleming.

We, the members of the CAT'S TALE editorial staff, lead a hard but interesting life. Few of you students realize the effort and fun it takes to publish an annual. Our work never ends, for as soon as one annual is finished, we begin the task of thinking up next year's theme. Once this is decided, pages must be designed and laid out. Art work related to the theme must be done by our art staff, and then, all this must be redone in ink. Copy must be written for all pages, as well as for those pages which carry out the theme. When class and club pictures are taken in the fall, they must be identified and the class pictures arranged in alphabetical order. Finally, when all pictures are identified, all copy is typed and proofread, the stacks of papers and pictures are sent to the publishers to be printed. Months later, we see the results of our efforts in the form of proofs which must be corrected before the annuals can be printed, bound, and distributed to you in the spring.

The business staff of the CAT'S TALE has an important job, and our work begins months before school starts in the fall. It is up to us to see that the annual is financed, so we spend our summer vacation selling ads to the local merchants. When this is done, the ads must be laid out, also. We must collect money for students' pictures, for club pictures, and later in the year, for the annual itself. Soon people begin to hide when they see one of us coming! Always having to ask for money isn't a pleasant job, nor is scraping together the money to publish an annual an easy task. You might be amazed to know that it costs thousands of dollars to publish one year's annual. But, somehow, we have managed to make ends meet again this year, and we are proud—and relieved—to say, "Here is your annual!"

Homecoming

Several weeks before October 16, each school organization and publication choose a senior girl as its sponsor. The days which followed brought increasing excitement as each student wondered which girl would be selected to reign over the Homecoming festivities. At last the long-awaited night arrived. All the lovely sponsors had been announced and had walked onto the field. A sudden hush fell over the crowd. It seemed ages before Mr. Setzer finally made the announcement—Miss Homecoming of 1959 is—Bunnie Salsbury! Smiling happily amid loud cheers, Bunnie, escorted by Sherrill Austin, walked forward to receive her crown and beautiful red roses from Jim Connelly, one of the tri-captains of the football team. Following the game, a dance was held at the Community Building honoring the queen. That night will be one long remembered by all the students of Morganton High.

Festivities

Kneeling: J. Clark, L. Mull, M. Cohen, K. Eskola, L. Mull, S. Austin, J. Houck, B. McFadden, T. McMahon, C. Walker. Standing: M. Harbison, B. Lowman, R. Clemmer, P. Barry, E. Fleming, B. Salsbury, N. Mitchell, P. Pruett, M. Jones, W. Beach.

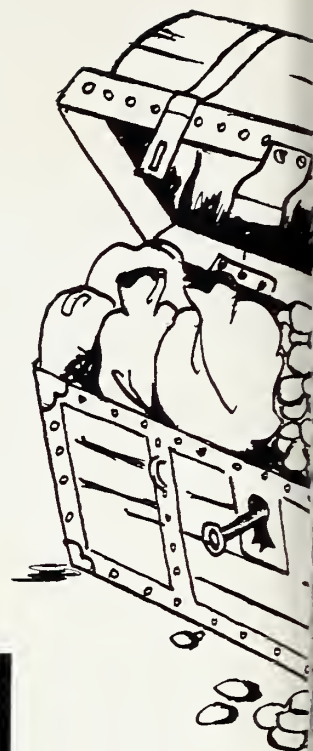

Miss Homecoming 1959

Bunnie Salsbury

Rebecca Clemmer and Wayland Plaster, your capable leadership combined with your drive and determination make you the MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED.

Senior

Elizabeth Fleming and Allen Lennon, your unceasing search for knowledge and your scholastic ability have gained you the title of MOST INTELLECTUAL.

Sharon Bristol and Henry Cantrell, your cheerful spirit and ready supply of remarks for any occasion have made you the choice for WITTIEST.

perlatives

Reta Sain and Scott Summers, your versatility and varied interests have earned you the title of BEST ALL ROUND.

Nancy Annis and Kim Eskola, your warm and vibrant personalities have made you the favorites for FRIENDLIEST.

Sandy Houpe and Byron Gentry, your ability and willingness to help have earned you a well-deserved honor — MOST VALUABLE.

Noryne Mitchell, your attractiveness, and Bill Wortman, your good looks, have given you the unchallenged title of BEST LOOKING.

Joyce Powell and Jimmy Connelly, you were chosen MOST ATHLETIC because of your outstanding ability and hard work in the field of sports, combined with your good sportsmanship.

Brenda Lowman and John Berry, you have been chosen MOST TALENTED because of your many accomplishments in the field of music.

Senior

Martha Harbison and Howard Carroll, you have been chosen NEATEST, which speaks for itself. We like the way you look!

Marsha Anderson and Melvin Cohen, because of your enthusiasm and support in school activities you have been chosen MOST SCHOOL SPIRITED.

perlatives

Bunnie Salsbury and Joe Huffman, your ability to get along with others and your amiable ways have made you the MOST POPULAR members of your senior class.

After weeks of creative endeavor, the juniors could look on and say, "Well done!"

I COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT

Carole Jean Suddreth and Byron Gentry pose by the waterfall for a picture to be long remembered.

After weeks of planning and working until all hours of the night and morning, the 1959 juniors created (out of nothing, it seemed) an "ENCHANTED ISLE." The 1959 seniors were more than appreciative of our efforts.

The island theme was carried out by the refreshments and the dress of the sophomore hosts and Linda Tune and Buddy Allman seem to be enjoying themselves—but who didn't?

Cookie Wilson and Millard Riggs were two of the juniors who worked hard to develop our "ENCHANTED ISLE" in the gym.

hostesses, who were: Tracy DeBell, Jan Taylor, Mary Lou Byrd, Anne Coffey, Mary Alice Lineberger, Randy Rollins, Wayne Whitaker, Herby Franklin, Charles Spencer, and Bruce Moses.

The Josey Brown Combo provided the perfect music for a heavenly night.

"HAPPY IS THE MAN THAT FINDETH WISDOM, AND THE MAN THAT GETTETH UNDERSTANDING"

The marshals are the top ten students of the Junior class, chosen for their scholastic ability. Their duties, in addition to keeping the mascots in tow, are to welcome and receive at all the Senior functions. These include class night, the Baccalaureate service, and of course, the graduation exercises. Our congratulations go to these outstanding students.

The Annual Staff Wishes To Thank Our Advertisers
Who By Their Cooperation And Interest Have Helped Make This Annual Possible.

Well, mates, here we are at the end of our adventure; and for us it has been a successful one. We have found our treasure—our knowledge gained here at M. H. S., the memories of school activities, and our friends. Although our voyage to Treasure Island has ended, we realize that a longer, more important voyage still lies before us. Soon we will once again set out into the unknown sea, but this time to find our place in the adult world. When we do begin this voyage, our education will be a guiding star.

We, the members of the 1960 CAT'S TALE staff, hope that this annual will serve as an enjoyable record of your days here at Morganton High School. We also hope that yours has been a pleasant voyage, and that your personal copy of TREASURE ISLAND will be a shining jewel in your chest of treasures and memories.
